

NATALIA GRĘBOWICZ-KAMIŃSKA

BLOGGER

All my life I was convinced that my work would be related to sport. While living in Poland, I worked as a Marketing Specialist in a football club. There I met my husband, with whom I moved to Japan five years ago. He is a goalkeeper in a JLeague club and I run a blog miss-gaijin.pl and social media about my life in Japan. After 5 years, I advise people on planning trips to Japan, write guides, find japanese hidden gems, recommend good hotels to stay, and share recipes for japanese dishes.

My Instagram is full of colorful photos encouraging both Polish and European as well as Japanese tourists to visit interesting places in Japan, but not only.
